Missionary Lines

When I was younger I would listen to my parents and grandparents talk about time 'flying' by. I thought they were nuts and didn't think I could hold out until summer break from school. But, in the words of my elders 'time sure has flown by this past year'.

2016 was a great year and an eventful year. As I reflect back to the beginning of the year I am reminded of the physical pain I was in and then to heart by-pass surgery in February. And then the healing process. I thank the Lord for health and another year of life. In 2016 politics was on 24-7 and we lived through a major hurricane. During the year the Association hosted the On Mission Connection. We had a wonderful week with 23 missionaries speaking just over 60 times. Our Backpack for Appalachia increased by over 10 times from the previous year. We had a total of 124 given this year. Missions continued to be a major focus during the year with the Medical Van in Claxton, Baby Changing at the Wildlife Festival, trip to Haiti, a trip to Ducktown, TN, the Sugar-time Project and much more.

As we begin to look into the New Year, I am not big on resolutions. We all know those resolutions last only about a week and some not even more than a day. At this New Year we need to make some commitments. Some ideas would be: pray faithfully for my pastor (and staff), be bold in sharing my faith, caring for my family including church family, being good stewards of everything God has given us, Studying my Bible Daily, Daily Prayer time, giving more, and many others that we could make renewed commitments.

The state evangelism conference is coming up Jan. 23 and 24 at Central Baptist in Warner Robins. For more information and schedule of speakers go to <http://gbcevangalismconferences.com/#schedule>.

Pastors/wife and Church Staff and wife remember the Fellowship meal on Tuesday, Jan 10 at Bobcat Diner in Collins. The Dinner will start at 7:00. RSVP to the office by Jan 5.

The next Pastors Roundtable will be Tuesday evening Jan 17 at our home in Collins. We will gather at 6:30. Lynn will be preparing a meal for us. Our home is located at 309 SW Railroad St in Collins.

The first Executive Committee Meeting of the Year will be on Thursday, Jan 19 at Agape Baptist in Claxton. A traditional Hispanic Meal will be served at 6 with the meeting beginning at 7.

May 2017 be a year of revival in our Association.
